4. Investigation and Analysis of the Historical History of the Population of “Hongze Lake Fishery Inspiration”

4.1. The legend and origin of the ceremony of the King of the King

In the study of the history of the inherited population, it was said that during the Tang Dynasty, Mudun Island fishermen invented the ceremony of Jing Dawang. A scholar named Xu went to Mudun Island in the middle of the exam. When he was about to go ashore, he suddenly became a violent wind, causing the boat to turn over. The people on the whole boat are falling into the water. The scholar tried to save the people who fell into the water, but he was drowned by the lake. The fishermen on the island were very grateful to the scholars, built temples on the shore, carved golden bodies and worshipped regularly. The behavior of the scholars also touched the heavens, and the Jade Emperor sealed him as the king of Hongze Lake. Since then, the king of Hongze Lake has become the only god believed by the people on the island.

4.2. Contents and characteristics of the ceremony of Jing Dawang

Sacrificial ceremonies can be divided into large ceremonies and small ceremonies, which can be performed on an individual basis or as a family. Sometimes the entire clan is also offering sacrifices and entertainment. Through the ceremony of the King of the King, the inhabitants of the island prayed for peace.

In the design of the ritual space structure, it is mainly carried out in the Dawang Temple of Mudun Island. The altar is arranged on the east side of the main hall of the Dawang Temple. The hanging of the god door is suspended in front of the altar. This is a folk paper-cutting process. In the center, the statue of the 72 keeper of the priest is placed, and gold and silver ingots are placed on both sides. The offerings are generally all kinds of grains, fruits and snacks. The time of sacrifice is generally on the eighth day of April, and the length of the sacrifice is 1-5 days. In the preparation stage of the King's Day Sacrifice Festival in Mudun Island, it usually takes 5 days. The whole process of sacrificing is divided into three parts: asking God, singing God and sending God, each process ten minutes. At 6 o'clock in the morning, the villagers will sit at the front of the altar, knock the fishing drums, and sing the sacrifices, the villagers will come to the temple. In the hanging hang of the gods, hanging around the statue of the four kings of the Golden Dragon, performing in the center of the hall, and hanging colorful papers, surrounded by performance areas and audience areas. In the invitation of the king, in the sound of a firecracker, a fishing drum sang a sacred ritual, the other one beat the fishing drum, and two of them painted the silver needle with the blood of the cock on the statue, and then illuminated it on the statue with a mirror. Then apply the powder to the portrait. During the festival, all kinds of tributes are placed in front of the statue of the king. After the ceremony, the tribute can bring the villagers home. In the wine fire, place the wine glasses on both sides of the tribute, then fill the wine and ignite the candle. In the course of respecting the king, the villagers bowed to the king. In the singer's link, in front of the big king, after the incense candle is lit, a special one performs. In the hanging session, the sacrificial person recites a spell in front of the statue of the king and uses his knife to cut his arm. In the killing process, the animals were slaughtered in front of the statue of the king and placed in front of the altar. In the gods, the artist recites a spell. The ritual ritual has formed a traditional repertoire, mainly including “Zhang Langlin Orientation” and “Liu Wenlong Catch Examination”. Each sentence has 11 words or 14 characters. The content is generally based on long narrative poems, and the flavor of the boat song is very strong. The lyrics are very neat, and they focus on rhyming, using solo, chorus and chorus. The fishing drum is a kind of musical instrument. It is round. It is made of dog skin or fish skin. The drum has a handle. The length of the handle is 15 cm. The stomach of the handle has a round iron ring. Each ring is divided into three. A small hoop. In the performance session, the performer's movements and sound effects are very important. After the fishing drum swings, people combine the rhythm of the fishing drum and recite the spell.

The special environment of Hongze Lake has created the characteristics of the Mudang Island fishermen's sacrificial culture, showing people's different lifestyles and folk customs. The local religious beliefs show the cultural characteristics of the fishing area. Hongze Lake brings people unlimited imagination and creates a strong personality of the local residents. In order to pray that the people who leave the lake can return safely, they will imagine that the gods will help them when they are in danger. The consciousness of Jing Dawang presents a strong cultural atmosphere of Hongze Lake. It has a close relationship with what people have seen and heard in Hongze Lake. It shows people's awe of nature and the idea of harmony between man and nature. Jing Dawang combined the thoughts of the gods and used the village as a unit to combine the religion and Yule to demonstrate a large-scale ritual consciousness. Bring the relationship between believers and gods closer by means of sacrifice and dance. The ceremony of the King of Mudun Island is very unique in form and style. It combines small plays and essays. The whole ritual process is closely related and the solemn expression of hormone dance is expressed. The time of the ceremony is very well controlled, showing the aesthetic characteristics of the locals.

4.3. Fishing inspiration in the ceremony of King Jing

The King of the King ceremony is the most common ritual activity of the fishermen of Hongze Lake. On the basis of the ceremony of the King of the King, it is also necessary to perform the fishing inspiration. The fishery encourages the combination of single and double, and dances in the singer. In the performance, in the opening of the altar, the way of worshipping the dance by a single person is adopted. Dance is a variety of ritual dances, the overall style is very solemn, and shows a strong ritual effect. In the open altar, please look for the god link, the action is very light, and at the same time with a sense of life.

In traditional customs and legends, local people use traditional rituals to spread the fishery. In the ceremony of the King of the King, the fishing drum will perform a fishing inspiration. Through body language, some intangible beliefs are transmitted, and the invisible spirit is transformed into tangible movements, presenting an intuitive and vivid image. The fish drum artist conveys information through dance to meet the visual needs of the people. Despite the combination of fishing inspiration in the worship event, the dance can also show beautiful features.

The fishing inspiration is mainly combined with the reading of the scriptures, please invite the lake god to come. The props mainly use copper bells. One rapper stands on the right side of the altar. The main ritual holds a brass bell in his hand. The ringing bell represents the arrival of various gods. The fish drum artist beats the fishing drum and the main sacrifice is a ritual. This set of actions is three times in a row. Then bow to the altar and bow. After getting up, open your arms, this action is repeated three times in a row, then pick up the flag and shake the bell. In the dance, control the rhythm and breathing, this action takes four shots as a complete movement, average speed, and breathe naturally. The pace is relatively small and the actions are very consistent. The action of the main ritual runs through the movements of the whole dance, forming a continuous rhythm, giving a dignified feeling, while at the same time having a flexible character. The main ritual is very generous when it comes to worshipping around.
