Abstract: The law is a key tool in the management of the country. In order to fully implement the rule of law, it is an important requirement for socialism with Chinese way, as well as an inexorable demand for the modernization of the country's management system and ability. In the new era, we must continue to unswervingly follow the socialist road and Chinese way, develop the socialist theoretical system and the rule of law with Chinese way, adhere to the rule of law, administer according to law, and build a country as a whole according to the rule of law, a law-based government and a society governed by law. The system carrier of the modernization of China's management system, the rule of law is not only the embodiment of China's governance capacity, but also an important guarantee to protect social equity and justice and ensure people's livelihood. The rule of law has gathered social consensus, provided comprehensive and basic institutional guarantees for the country's legal construction, and brought the country's legal construction into a new and stronger era!

1. Introduction

Since the Third Plenary Session of the 11th Central Committee of the CPA (Communist Party of China) in 1978, China has begun reform and openness. In the great historical practice of the 40 years of reform and openness of the CPA, we have been leading the Chinese people to overcome the difficulties and obstacles in the process of development. At the 18th National Congress of the CPA, XI stressed that in the “four comprehensive strategic layouts”, we should strive to promote the construction of the rule of law in a comprehensive manner, because this is an important part and important support for building a well-off society in an all-round way. It is an important way to realize the comprehensive deepening of reform and strong support, and it is the driving force mechanism to improve the scientific level of the Party's construction in an all-round way. The 19th National Congress of the CPA in 2017 proposed a new situation in the past affirming socialism with Chinese way, which also pointed out that the new direction of building the rule of law in China, the theory of socialism with Chinese way is through the emergence and development of socialism with Chinese way, in line with China's specific national conditions and the overall interests of China's country and people. It embodies the spirit of vitality, success and self-discipline; It reflects the feeling contained; It embodies the common expectation of pursuing the all-round development of the individual, and the cultural spirit of cohesion has great practical significance for the cohesion, inspiration and accumulation of positive energy.

2. The Significance of Comprehensively Implement the Rule of Law

In practice, leading the people of all ethnic groups in the construction of the law system of scientists, our Party has summarized a series of law systems with Chinese way, and conforms to Chinese situation, and conforms to a series of legal concepts of Chinese situation. According to the guidance of these legal concepts, China's political and legal work has made rapid development and outstanding achievements. The importance of ruling the country by law is to bring all aspects of social life and political life into line with the values of human rights, so that ordinary people's lives can be guaranteed to the highest degree.

2.1 Ruling the Country According to Law in an All-Round Way is a Profound Revolution in the Governance of the Country

According to the law to manage the country in a one-way way, this is a powerful design, with the most realistic, long-term development vision, aimed at changing the socialist development process of the main contradictions and social status of the broad group of people facing the demand for new materials, continuous improvement of living standards. After the problems of physical food and clothing have been solved, a well-off society has been built in a comprehensive way, people's beautiful vision extends to all aspects of life, materials are only the most basic pursuit, and spiritual enjoyment and needs are becoming more and more diverse, which is the necessity of social development. When people demand fairness and justice, living conditions in their communities and environmental protection and security, the guarantees of the rule of law are more urgent and nothing can be established, and the administration of the State by law is no longer just an imagination that exists in expectations.

2.2 Comprehensively Implementing the Rule of Law is the Basic Strategy of Socialism with Chinese Way for a New Era

At the 18th session of the Fourth Plenary Session, it was clearly proposed to “build socialism under the rule of law and the system with Chinese way and establish a socialist state under the rule of law”. The report of the National Congress of the CPA further clarifies the major strategic plan for the governance of the core country of the Central Committee of the CPA in accordance with the law, with emphasis on the conditions and realities of China's major strategic plan, and lays a solid foundation for advancing the modern national management system and governance capabilities. Summarizing and exploring the achievements and experiences of the socialist rule of law and Chinese way, we find that only by conforming to Chinese situation with Chinese way on the road of socialist rule of law can we truly achieve the fundamental goal of protecting everyone's rights and interests.

2.3 Comprehensively the Rule of Law Made It Clear That the Cpa Leads Everything

The CPA is very magnificent and brilliant! From sunrise to the east of the single spark can start the prairie, from the rush to Beijing for rehabilitation, from the past to the recovery of the past, the CPA has experienced more than a hundred years of storm course. Our centennial centennial percentage, reached the original mission, is to lay the foundation for his career a hundred years, as well as create a brilliant future of hundreds of people! There is no doubt that the Communist Party, which has led China for a hundred years, is the fundamental cornerstone of China's long-term development and the basic feature of socialism with Chinese way. After the 19th century of the CPA, this ideological context is summarized and expressed more clearly. The CPA is China's highest political leadership and manages the soul of the country in an all-round way in accordance with the law.

2.4 Comprehensively Implement the Rule of Law Points out a New Direction For the Socialist Law System Construction

The adoption of good laws for development and ensuring good governance reflect that our understanding of the rule of law has risen to new heights that have never been reached. In the four aspects of legislation, law enforcement, law compliance and justice, it has been extended more scientifically and fairly from the central government to the local government; Case filing register system, circuit court, cross-regional people's courts and procuratorial institutions have been thinking for many years, over the years talked about for many years, has been completed, the construction of socialist ruling Chinese way of the law has begun a new journey.

3. Main Tasks of the Rule of Law

3.1 The Core of the Rule of Law is to Improve the Constitution

The importance of the Constitution is self-evident, which is absolutely the core element of strengthening and ensuring it as the socialist law system with Chinese way. Back to the traces of the wheel of history, it is not difficult to see that the constitution implemented in China is a good constitution, in line with Chinese situation and the development of the Chinese era! It is everyone's responsibility to protect the dignity and authority of the Constitution and to establish and improve its institutions and norms. From the "Gyeonggi Road Land Law" to the "Constitution of the People's Republic of China" to a number of amendments to the Constitution, the Chinese Constitution has been in the process of exploration, practice and continuous improvement. Each improvement proves that China is steadily moving towards a society with a more sound rule of law, which is more conducive to promoting a more comprehensive, healthy and steady development of the rule of law in China.

3.2 Comprehensively Implement the Rule of Law Needs to Establish a Strict Supervision System

Power is like a sheep in a cage. If not regulated and suppressed, it will inevitably lead to serious consequences, "losing the power of supervision is the most corrupt power." "The consequences of abuse of power are obstacles to social norms. Without supervision, power will lose its due value. In the operation of power, we should have scientific norms to limit, strong supervision and protection, unified power and responsibility, supervision of the exercise of human rights, and punishment for violations of the law. At the same time, legislation to further promote science and democracy. In summary, it is necessary to strengthen the organization and coordination of legislation of the National People's Congress and to establish and improve the legislature in order to lead all social parties to participate in the orderly supervision of the rule of law.

3.3 Perfecting the Law System Construction System is the Guarantee of Comprehensive Rule of Law

We should establish a socialist law system with Chinese way, implement the theory of the rule of law in practice, adhere to the characteristics of the socialist system, further improve the legal norm system with the focus of standardization and restriction of public power, make a rule of law supervision fit the national conditions, strict, improve the efficiency of the implementation system of the rule of law, give full play to the leading role of state power organs in legislation and law enforcement, and provide a strong political and organizational guarantee for the overall management of the state in accordance with the law. Strengthening institutional construction and financial security, building legal team and strengthening legal service team can provide more and better talent pool and material security. Unify ideas, form a complete legal norm system, better and more effective guidance of the work of the rule of law.

4. Strengthen the Belief and Follow the Party, and Be Brave in the Tide of the Times

History is the best textbook and the best Sobering agent. China's uninterrupted history of civilization has accumulated a profound self-confidence in civilization and culture over the years, creating outstanding achievements in civilization and culture, and forming a great sense of national self-esteem and national pride. The characteristics of youth represent the characteristics of a certain degree of times. The spirit of youth can also reflect the spirit of the times on the one hand. In his report, General Secretary Xi Jinping said: "If youth prosper, the country will be strong, if youth is strong, the country will be strong." "Celebrating the 100th anniversary of the founding of the CPA, more than 1,000 young pioneers and members of the Communist Youth League took the oath of "Please rest assured that a strong country has me", which is inspiring and loud throughout China! If the younger generation has the ideals, responsibilities and capacities, the country will have a bright future and the country will have hope for prosperity and strength. Young people should be angry and strong, take over the reform and openness efforts and achievements more than 40 years from their predecessors to draw more than 40 years, from the red gene to draw strong beliefs, strengthen ideals and beliefs, set an example, strengthen cultural learning, strengthen the "four whole", strengthen the "four self-confidence", to achieve "two maintenance." As young people in a new era, we must be down-to-earth and ambitious, realizing our self-worth and self-worth in the process of the Chinese dream.

5. Conclusion

Governing the country in a way that is governed by law on the one hand is a profound and great revolution that will face the governance of the country. It requires society as a whole and the country as a whole to uphold the rule of law, to further promote new rule of law in scientific legislation, strict law enforcement, fair justice and compliance with the law for all; There is a need to promote development and to ensure good governance in accordance with the law, democratic legislation; We should continue to deepen the reform of the judicial system and strive to make people feel fair, only in every judicial case.
